

WIW & CREW PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT RETREAT

In today's fast-paced business environment, the success of your organization hinges on the effectiveness and well-being of your leaders. We invite you to sponsor their participation in a transformative retreat designed specifically for women entrepreneurs and executives.

SKILLS DEVELOPMENT

- Enhanced Communication & Leadership: Participants will master advanced communication techniques, develop stronger rapport-building skills, and refine their leadership presence.
- Strategic Influence: By leveraging research-backed behavioral principles, participants will master negotiations skills that positively influence outcomes.
- Increased Productivity & Strategic Focus: Through a combination of mindfulness practices and intentional energy management, attendees will discover how to maintain focus on high-value tasks, prioritize their responsibilities, and drive results that align with your organization's goals.
- Sustainable Work-Life Harmony: Our program supports participants in achieving greater career satisfaction and fulfillment. They'll leave with stress-management tools to balance their professional and personal lives, reducing burnout and increasing their long-term effectiveness as leaders.

ALWAYS THIS GOOD MINDFUL BUSINESS CONSULTING

This experience has been the most instrumental in terms of progress for me. I have learned both basic business concepts as well as high-level strategy skills. There's no way I'd be achieving so many goals I set for myself without the ATG team in my corner. This is one of the top investments I've made in myself and my business, and I highly recommend it.

Elena Joy Thurston, TEDx speaker, and activist

Working with Always This Good is a breath of fresh air. They've increased my productivity and I'm focused on high-value tasks for my organization. Absolutely I would recommend their services and programs, they've made a huge difference in our business.

Mary Savery, Sr. Director, Cable ONE

PROVEN BENEFITS

Participants report:

- Greater career fulfillment and reduced burnout
- Improved work-life harmony
- Enhanced effectiveness in developing key stakeholder relationships
- Increased ability to prioritize and perform high-value tasks
- Superior leadership and negotiation skills

THE VALUE TO YOUR ORGANIZATION

The value your organization will gain from sponsoring your employee's participation in the WiW & CREW Professional Development Retreat is comparable to other high-level professional development opportunities. However, unlike traditional conferences or workshops, this immersive experience offers a unique combination of relaxation and intensive personal growth, fostering a more profound transformation. The long-term benefits include increased productivity, better leadership, and improved employee retention.
